

The Courageous Warrior

I was reading a book by Ed Piorek entitled Essential Manhood (p. 75) this morning and was struck by his comment:

In our modern society a man doesn't often have to fight for his very life. Or does he? Social, emotional, and spiritual battles rage daily in our midst, and they affect our lives, our families, and our churches. The Holy Spirit is moving upon every man to stir up his righteous warrior spirit. In order to fulfill the call of God a man must allow the Holy Spirit to fill his heart with love, and heal him of his fears so that he might find courage to stand. Compassion will compel a man to destroy what is wrong and establish the righteous things of God. Within every man there is a warrior spirit that wants to rise up and fight for what is right. If a man harnesses his warrior-hood to fight evil according to God's design, nothing can stop him. My prayer is that every man would be sensitive to the working of the Holy Spirit as he follows the Lord Jesus Christ, our great warrior.

I'm joining Ed in his prayer that, right now, the Holy Spirit is stirring up your righteous warrior spirit in order to fulfill the call of God. Is the Spirit nudging you to check into the upcoming retreat? Is he nudging you to bring your son or a protégé? If so, your ticket is only $20 and your son's or guest is only $10. Pheasant hunting & banquet included!
