

Now in its 11th year, Ask-Men's Top 99 Most Desirable Women is annually the site's largest feature, and helps signal shifts in the qualities men are looking for in their dream girls. Over 1 million readers voted on the Top 99 in 2012 and the winner was announced Tuesday. It's often said that glamour is a young woman's game, but men bucked that trend in 2012, as 39-year-old "Modern Family" star Sofia Vergara snagged the top spot. The actress beat out a number of younger leading ladies and newcomers to lead the Top 10, including Victoria's Secret favorites Miranda Kerr, Candice Swanepoel, rapper Nicki Minaj, actresses Emma Stone, and Scarlett Johansson. Could it be that men are starting to dump some of their traditional determinants for desirability in a woman?

At Solomon's request, he was granted more wisdom than any man before or after him (1 Kings 3:12) The book of Proverbs is filled with his wisdom and speaks much about how easily men are seduced and the consequences they face because of it. The very last chapter and verses in Proverbs describe the truly desirable woman. The section begins with a lament, "Who can find a virtuous and capable wife?" It continues, "She is more precious than rubies. Her husband can trust her, and she will greatly enrich his life. She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life."

Guys, if you are looking for a truly desirable woman that won't end up messing up your life, it would be well to study God's model, described in Proverbs 31. And, if like me, God has blessed you with the woman with those virtues, be sure that you are following the instructions at the end—rewards and public praise are in order! Valentine's Day is just around the corner.

*Charm is deceptive, and beauty does not last;
but a woman who fears the LORD will be greatly praised.*

Reward her for all she has done.

Let her deeds publicly declare her praise.
